CHARLES O. LEVEY NOW ON TRIAL.

Stranger From Kansas Charged With Housebreaking.

ENDEAVORS TO PROVE ALIBI

Policemen Summoned as Witnesses Fail to Appear in Court - His Honor Inquires Into It.

Charles O. Levey is being tried before Judge Stewart and a jury on a charge of housebreaking today. The information against Levey is that he broke into the house of E. T. Palmer at 1525 south West Temple on Sept. 23, and stole a quantity of clothing and other things valued at $14.35, the property of E. T. Palmer. Levey is being defended by Attorney D. B. Richards.

The defense is an allbi, the defendant claiming that he does not even know the house of Palmer which he is said to have broken into. His story is that he fell in with a man who gave him a hard luck story, and whom he fed for several days at different restaurants. He eral days at different restaurants. He accounts for having been found in possession of some of Palmer's property by saying that the man gave them to him. Defendant says that he was entirely ignorant of where the man got the articles of clothing etc., which he gave to him, and was entirely ignorant of the fact that they had been stolen. Levey stated that he came here from Larned, Kas., and was a member of the Officers Gillespie, Sperry and Brown had been subpoenaed as witnesses for the state, but did not appear when called and the trial was delayed for a half hour while the deputy sheriff served the officers named with a bench warrant. Before the court took a re-cess this noon Judge Stewart sum-moned Sheriff Naylor and asked him to explain. The sheriff said that according a time-honored custom officers re quired to appear as witnesses were never personally served with sum-monses, but that the latter were left with the desk sergeant and notices posted on the notice board that the of-ficers were required to appear in such Morrison, Merrill & Co. vs Bingham Tunnel Company.

Court Orders Claims of Smith and Gee, Laborers, to He Satisfied First.

Trial of the case of Morrison, Merrill & Co., vs the Bingham Tunnel company et al, is going on before Judge Hall today. The suit is brought by Morrison, Merrill & Co., against the Bingham Tunnel company to foreclose on a mechanic's lien for $879.46. The Salt Lake Hardware company also has a mechanic's iten for $1,973.63, and Joseph Y. Smith and Charley Gee have liens for labor of $488 respectively as tiens for labor of $488 respectively as superintendent and cook at the mine. W. S. Henderson has a judgment for $482.19, the Salt Lake Electric Supply company for $1,557.40, McCornick & Co., for $3,952; J. M. Marriott for $379.45; F. N. Gifford for $17,355, and Dey & Street for $4,000, and all these claimants file counter claims against which the Bingham Tunnel company is in default. The suit is to establish the priority of the various judgments and liens.

There is quite an array of counsel engaged in the trial. The plaintiffs are represented by J. M. Bowman, J. Y. Smith and Charley Gee by George Nye, J. M. Marriott by S. McDowall, McCornick & Co., by Zane & Rogers, F. N.

J. M. Marriott by S. McDowall, McCornick & Co., by Zane & Rogers, F. N. Cifford by H. L. Hoppaugh, Dey & Street and the Salt Lake Hardware company by W. H. Brammel, W. S. Henderson by Stephens & Smith, and the Salt Lake Electrical Supply company by W. R. Hutchinson.

The forenoon was occupied in the examination of E. E. Lamson, the book-keeper and a stockholder in the minamination of E. E. Lamson, the book-keeper, and a stockholder in the min-ing company. Judge McDowali object-ed to Charley Gee's claim under a mechanic's lien for services as a cook, which he argued, could not be classed as work done for the preservation or development of a mine or lode. As to Gee's claim as night watchman the judge said he did not object to that, al-though he did believe that that even could come under the mechanics' lien could come under the mechanics' lien

The court rendered judgment, ordering a decree of foreclosure and sale of the property to satisfy first the claims of Smith and Gee, laborers; second, Morrison, Merrill and company, and Morrison, Merrill and company, and Salt Lake Hardware company, ma-terial men. In the third class come all judgment lien holders in the order of the dates of their judgments.

iry across the parade. Early today a French bark struck off Hendon. Nineteen of the crew were drowned.

Numerous other wrecks have been reported but the weather in most cases prevents the identification of the craft. Two vessels in distress were sighted last evening off Dungeness, but the weather was so severe that the life-boat was unable to put out to their asstatance. This morning one of them sank. The other, a steamer, reached West Bay, where a tug is now standing by her.

The revenue cutter Active has been wrecked in the Firth of Forth. Twenty-three of her crew were drowned and three were saved.

Crew of the Astree Saved.

Buenos Ayres, Nov. 13.—The transport Chaco, which has arrived at this port, reports having picked up at Staten island, (an island of Terra del Fuego, at the southern extremity of South America), the captain, first and second America), the captain, first and second officers and twenty-one of the crew of the French ship Astree, which sailed from Shields, July 12, for Valparaiso. The Astree had been abandoned October 8, off Cape St. John. Six other members of the crew who had left the ship in small boats are missing.

The Chaco also picked up the first officer and two of the crew of the bark Glencaird, Capt. English, which sailed from Shields, May 18, for San Francisco. The Glencaird was lost off Port Margaret, Staten island. The captain, second officer, third officer and the rest of the crew were drowned.

Swindling of Britishers Checked. London, Nov. 13.—The British public has been so ruthlessly swindled of recent years by fraudulent company promoters that the issue of an official intimation that legislation has substantially checked financial misconduct has been received with much satisfaction in commercial circles. The board of trade report on the companies winding-up commercial circles. The board of trade report on the companies winding-up act says that act is operating successfully in the direction of checking irregularities and securing financial righteousness, "Certain gangs of unscrupulous promoters," says the report, "have been brought to justice and removed from the sphere of active enterprise. Others have found irregular business no longer profitable."

Boers Not Suing for Peace.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—The Frankfurter Zeitung today publishes an interview with A. D. Wolmerans, the Boer representative now at Amsterdam, in which the latter is quoted as declaring that the alleged impending peace negotiations between the Boers and British are unfounded.

"So long" says Wolmerans "as the

"So long," says Wolmerans, "as the British ministry maintains the attitude outlined by Mr. Chamberlain's and Lord Salisbury's last speeches, the question of peace cannot be entertained. The idea of the cession of the gold fields is absurd."

Miss Wackerman a Lunatic. Miss Wackerman a Lunatic.

London, Nov. 13.—Miss Vanderbilt Wackerman, of New York, who came into prominence last winter by threatening Hubert Herkelmer, the artist, with a suit for damages because he refused to allow her to complete sittings for a painting of her which he had begun, was taken to St. Glies infirmary today as a wandering lunatic. She will probably be examined tomorrow.

Miss Wackerman has been staying at the Hotel Cecil for a fortnight and un-the Hotel Cecil for a fortnight and un-til last night she did not attract any special attention. She then insisted on wandering into the court yard of the hotel bareheaded, and during the night she went out into the streets without a hat, wearing a loose, black tea gown, and wandered aimlessly about, attracting crowds. Today she was brought back to the hotel, in a hysterical condition and the management handed he over to the police.
